Life

"Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, or stand in the way of sinners, or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. 3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season, and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers." Psalm 1: 1-3. NIV

See you at the Pole

September
23rd, 2009

We give GOD
the glory.

Although "See You at the Pole" is a student-initiated, student-led event, we believe that God is the one working in our hearts - this is how we express it. His love empowers us as young people and we want to impart that blessing on our school and share that joy with the people we interact with. We pray for our teachers, families, friends and politicians, and we show obedience to our Lord who commanded us to "pray continually" (1 Thessalonians 5:17).

SYATP 2009

The theme for 2009 was ENGAGE: Go and pray, taken from 2 Kings 22:13a. Next year, See You at the Pole will take place on September 22, 2010.

Fire Drill

Center: One October day, the staff of Northshore Baptist initiated a mandatory fire drill. Heading toward the rear of the church parking lot, students practice a safe and orderly escape from the imaginary fire. Study hall monitors, facilitators, and teachers like Mrs. Debbie Menzies make sure everyone is accounted for from Musical Theater.

Above Right: Refusing to let the fire drill interrupt his lecture, Kirby Wilbur continues the history lesson outside, mostly to parents.

Right: In her rush to escape the building, Grace Morache (10) "forgot" her shoes.

Above: Grouped in classes, kids use their free time outside to socialize (and practice choreography).

Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire!

Right: Accompanying Mrs. Brannock to view the Bodies exhibit, Anatomy and Physiology classmates get an up-close-and-personal lesson, including Christopher Langley, James Butler, Vincent Catanzaro, Steven George, Alexandra Calvo, Brooke Menzies, Mariah Hammond, Abby Hutchinson, Adella Catanzaro, Millie DuBose, Jyoti Cossette, Janelle Kono, Braelyn Menzies and Kirsten Nelson.

Center: Holding imaginary torches, Ethan Goodnight (10), Jamie Doherty (11), and Kathleen Siemion (10) pose with a Statue of Liberty replica in the Luxembourg Gardens. Several students from the French class and parents accompanied Mrs. Susie Tucker to see the sights of Paris, France. Heading out of the classroom, students from Connections attended several unofficial field trips and submitted photos to the Yearbook Staff. To a homeschooler, the classroom is all around us!

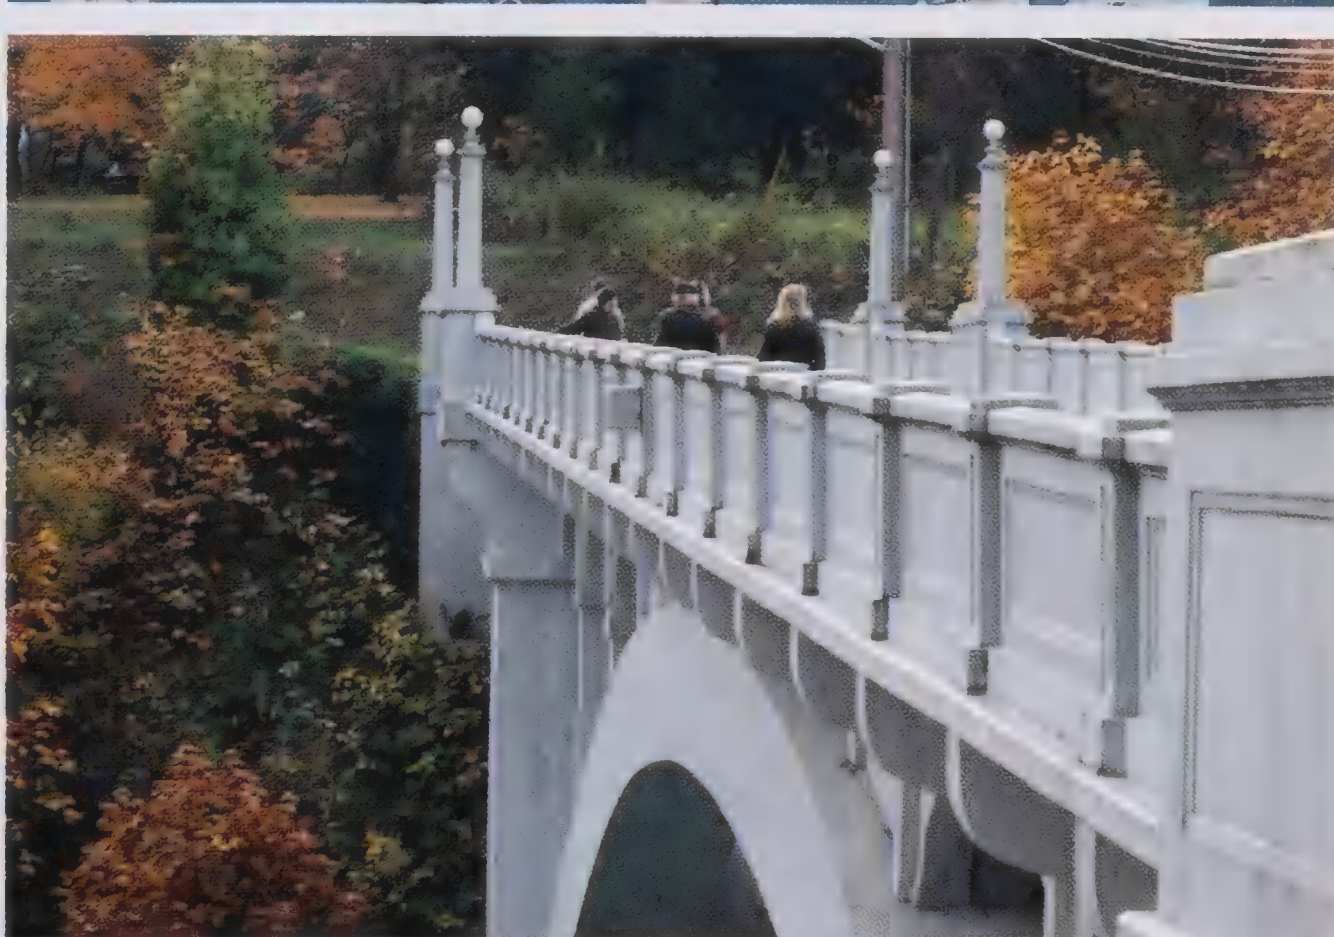

Above: Led by Mr. Raven, students from Marine Biology and Oceanography tour the Seattle Aquarium. Completing answers to questions on clipboards, the students learn about marine life from Mr. Raven's narrative and observation, including this stop to observe marine area birds.

Left: Posing in front of the famous landmark, Mrs. Tucker's French class students visit the Eiffel Tower. During the trip they sampled French cuisine and also visited the Louvre, Notre Dame Cathedral, the Arch of Triumph, Versailles, the Champs-Elysees, and more! The next trip abroad is planned for the Spring of 2012!

Below: In conjunction with the study of the impact of the radio broadcast of "The War of the Worlds," Mrs. Brotman's Power of the Press class visited Concrete, where an unexpected power outage magnified the realism of the original radio broadcast. Spelling out the letters "C-O-N" (for Concrete), are Sammy Mori (8), Esther Brotman (10), Mrs. Ellen Brotman, Ashley McDuffie (9), and Jackson De Vight (9).

Below Center: A trip to Concrete in the fall, as part of the Power of the Press class, provided a perfect opportunity to appreciate the fall colors from the beautiful, arched Thompson Bridge.

Exponential

Goodbye,

Mary Takle

For more than 16 years she has served Homeschool Connections as a dedicated teacher, board member and counselor... Now, she is attending the University of Washington, Bothell campus. In the spring of 2010, she will graduate with a Master's Degree in Education, a high school math endorsement and a teacher certification.

Using these tools, she hopes to teach high school math in the public school system and develop math curriculum.

Thank you, Mary Takle, for all you have done for this community!

"Fractions are our friends!"

Mary Takle

"Fromage!"
(That means "cheese" in French!)
~Mrs. Tucker

Right: Each type of punctuation has its own color on Gabe Altenberger's (6) Grammar 2 punctuation project.

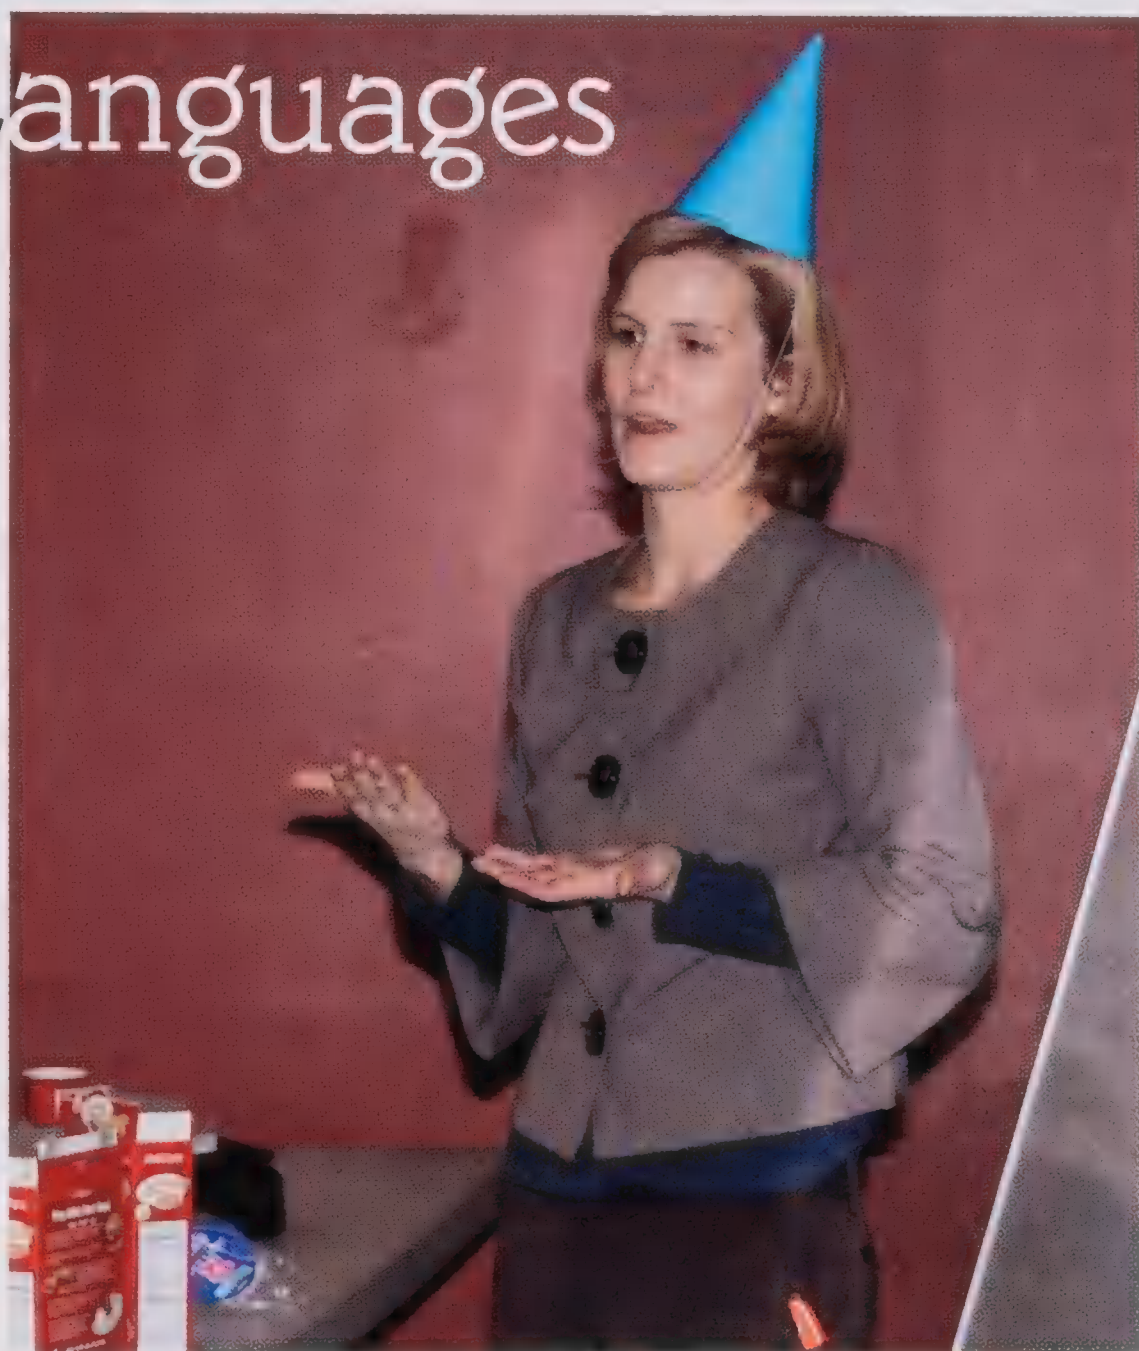

Far right: At a party in Mrs. Slabaugh's Beginning Sign Language class, Marc Renkema (6) and Nathan Ackerman (5) practice using food and color vocabulary.

Learning more about Languages

Below: With help from Mrs. Tucker, Lauren Doherty (8) translates a sentence about hiking in the mountains, in French 1B. Language is more than memorizing nouns, verbs and tenses; it is taking the time to understand a country's culture and its history. To experience French culture firsthand, Mrs. Tucker planned a class trip to France in March.

Spiritual Growth

Bible Classes

Right: Acting out the story of Ruth and Naomi, Shaylin Sande (2) and Libby Scott (1) dress up in Bible costumes in Mrs. Brotman's Bible Marathon as Abigail Grayson (K) and Ellie Smidt (3) look on. This year, Connections offered Bible-based classes for students of all ages.

Right: Firm Foundations: Mrs. Billing, JJ Pearson, Aubrey Hanna, Timothy Billing, Jonathan Billing, Kyle Ness, Amy Walsh, Nathan Ackerman, Keaton Hanna, Juliana Bushnell.

Right: Bible Marathon: Gabriel Oropeza, Ananiah Bartsch, Joseph Jenott, Simon Scott, Mrs. Brotman, Jonah Scott, Libby Scott, Evan Radebaugh, Celeste Jenott, Shaylin Sande, Joshua Travis.

Right: Holding a sword, Gabriel Oropeza (2) awaits orders from King Solomon, played by Simon Scott (2). In a Bible story drama acted out in Bible Marathon, the king strives to bring justice to the kingdom.

Right: Answering questions about Pilgrim's journey, Laura Ellingson (3) raises her hand in Character Explorations. They are reading The Pilgrim's Progress for Children (adapted from the story by John Bunyan).

Below: From the Bible story of Deborah, Celeste Jenott (1) and Libby Scott (1) arrange their game markers for the Battle at Tabor.

Above: As a reward for completing another mile-marker in Bible Marathon, Ellie Smidt (3) selects a treat from the jar.

Above: New Testament: Brooke Menzies, Chandler Grace, Brandon Snyder, Helene Welch, Sammy Mori, Harrison Scott, Kendra Hanna, Adrienne Duguay, Emily Morache, Mrs. Menzies, Andrew Ackerman.

Left: Listening to Mrs. Menzies talk about the book of Colossians, Helene Welch (10), Emily Morache (8), Adrienne Duguay (8), Brooke Menzies (11), and Kendra Hanna (8) take notes.

Right: Connections Yearbook: Grace Morache, Monet Curnutt, Chelsea Crane, Johnny McDougall, Mrs. Hutchinson, Janelle Kono, Ruth Vanden Bos, Emma Jurgens, Kristina Fowler-Johnson, Melinda Welch, Millie DuBose, Rachel Bailey.

Right: Discovering one of several caches hidden around the outside of the building, Karyssa Ness (9) and Rachel Hopke (8) work as a team to answer numerous questions about safety and health from lessons they have learned in Mrs. Duguay's Healthy Habits for Girls class.

Right: Auto Care: Nathan Brand, Mr. Albert, Kevyn Ness, Philip Zornes, Ethan Goodnight, C.J. Easter, Megan McLerran, Alexandra Calvo, Kyle Weber, Max Gregory, Cassie Mize, Emily Winter.

Wearing gloves to avoid grease and oil stains on his hands, Philip Zornes (12) checks off the next item on his list during the Auto Care class taught by Mr. Albert. Learning the basic systems of the car, the students are taught how to implement a preventive care strategy.

Life Skills Classes

Growing and Learning with Technology and the Times

Left: Working on their laptops, Bobby Gray (12), Adam Stephenson (12), and Ben Delaney (9) learn a programming language in Mr. Weber's class. The class exposes students to the basics of computer logic, input-output, and calculations. On their way to learning more complicated programs, earlier this year they wrote a program that could shuffle a deck of cards and also wrote a Pig-Latin translator.

Below: Sharing creative techniques with each other, Grace Morache (10), Ruth Vanden Bos (9), and Melinda Welch (12) look over Melinda's current yearbook page assignment. After gathering advertising dollars, learning the yearbook program, and compiling photographs during first semester, the students then begin to work together on the actual pages layout and design.

MATTHIAS REPLACES JUDAS

IT IS SO THAT MY TRANSGRESSIONS HAVE BORN A WITHERED FRUIT, THE
SUN HAS SCORCHED THE RISING
PLANTS; ALAS THEY HAVE NO ROOT,
THE BLEACHED BONES OF ANIMALS
BOUND BY LEATHER STRIPS, DANCE
THROUGH THE AIR WITH LAUGHTER
AS I WIELD THIS WICKED WHIP, AS YOU DID WARN ME CARPENTER, THIS WORLD HAS WEAKENED MY HEART,
SO EASILY I DISPARAGE, SELF-
SEEKING THE WORK OF MY ART,
AND THERE YOU HAVE COME TO ME
AT THE MOMENT I BATHE IN MY SORROW, SO IN LOVE WITH MYSELF,
SOUGHT AFTER AVOIDING TOMOR-ROW, WHERE DO YOU FIND THE LOVE
TO OFFER HE WHO BETRAYS YOU?
AND OFFER TO WASH MY FEET AS I
OFFER TO DISOBEY YOU, YOUR BEAUTY DOES BEREAVE ME, AND HOW
MY WORDS DO FAIL, SO FAITH-
FULLY AND DUTIFULLY I AWARD YOU
WITH BETRAYAL, THE WEAK AND THE
DOWN TRODDEN FALL ON BROKEN
LEGS, AS I WALK PAST A SMILE I
CAST, FERVOR IN MY STEAD, BUT
MY BONES LIKE PLASTIC, DO BUCKLE
BACKWARD NOW, I LAY IN THIS FIELD BY JUDAS' BOWELS AND ANTICIPATE THE PLOW, I CAN NOT BE FORGIVEN; MY WAGES WILL BE PAID, FOR THOSE MORE LOVELY AND ADMIRABLE IS LEAST AMONG THE
SAVED, AND WHERE WOULD I FIT
JESUS? WHAT PLACE IS LEFT FOR ME? THE PRICE OF ATONEMENT IS MORE THAN I'VE FOUND TO OFFER UP
AS MY PLEA, JESUS MY HEART IS
ALL I HAVE TO GIVE TO YOU, SO
WEAK AND SO UNWORTHY, THIS SIMPLY WILL NOT DO, NO
ALABASTER JAR, NO DIAMOND IN
THE ROUGH, FOR YOUR BODY THAT WAS BROKEN, HOW CAN THIS BE ENOUGH? BY ME YOU WERE ABANDONED, BY ME YOU WERE BE-TRAYED, YET IN YOUR ARMS AND
IN YOUR HEART FOREVER I HAVE STAYED YOUR GLORY ILLUMINATES
MY LIFE, AND NO DARKNESS WILL
DESCEND, FOR YOU HAVE LOVED ME
FOREVER, AND YOUR LOVE WILL NEVER END

I was unexpectedly born with defective heart valves. The doctors said that if I survived at all, I would need open heart surgery very soon. My parents prayed, turned it over to God, and waited.

After seventeen years, the time for surgery came in October 2009. Again, we trusted God and His will for my life. Both the surgery and recovery went amazingly well. He was with us.

God has my life in His hands. I look forward to the future He holds for me.

Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart... Psalm 37:4a

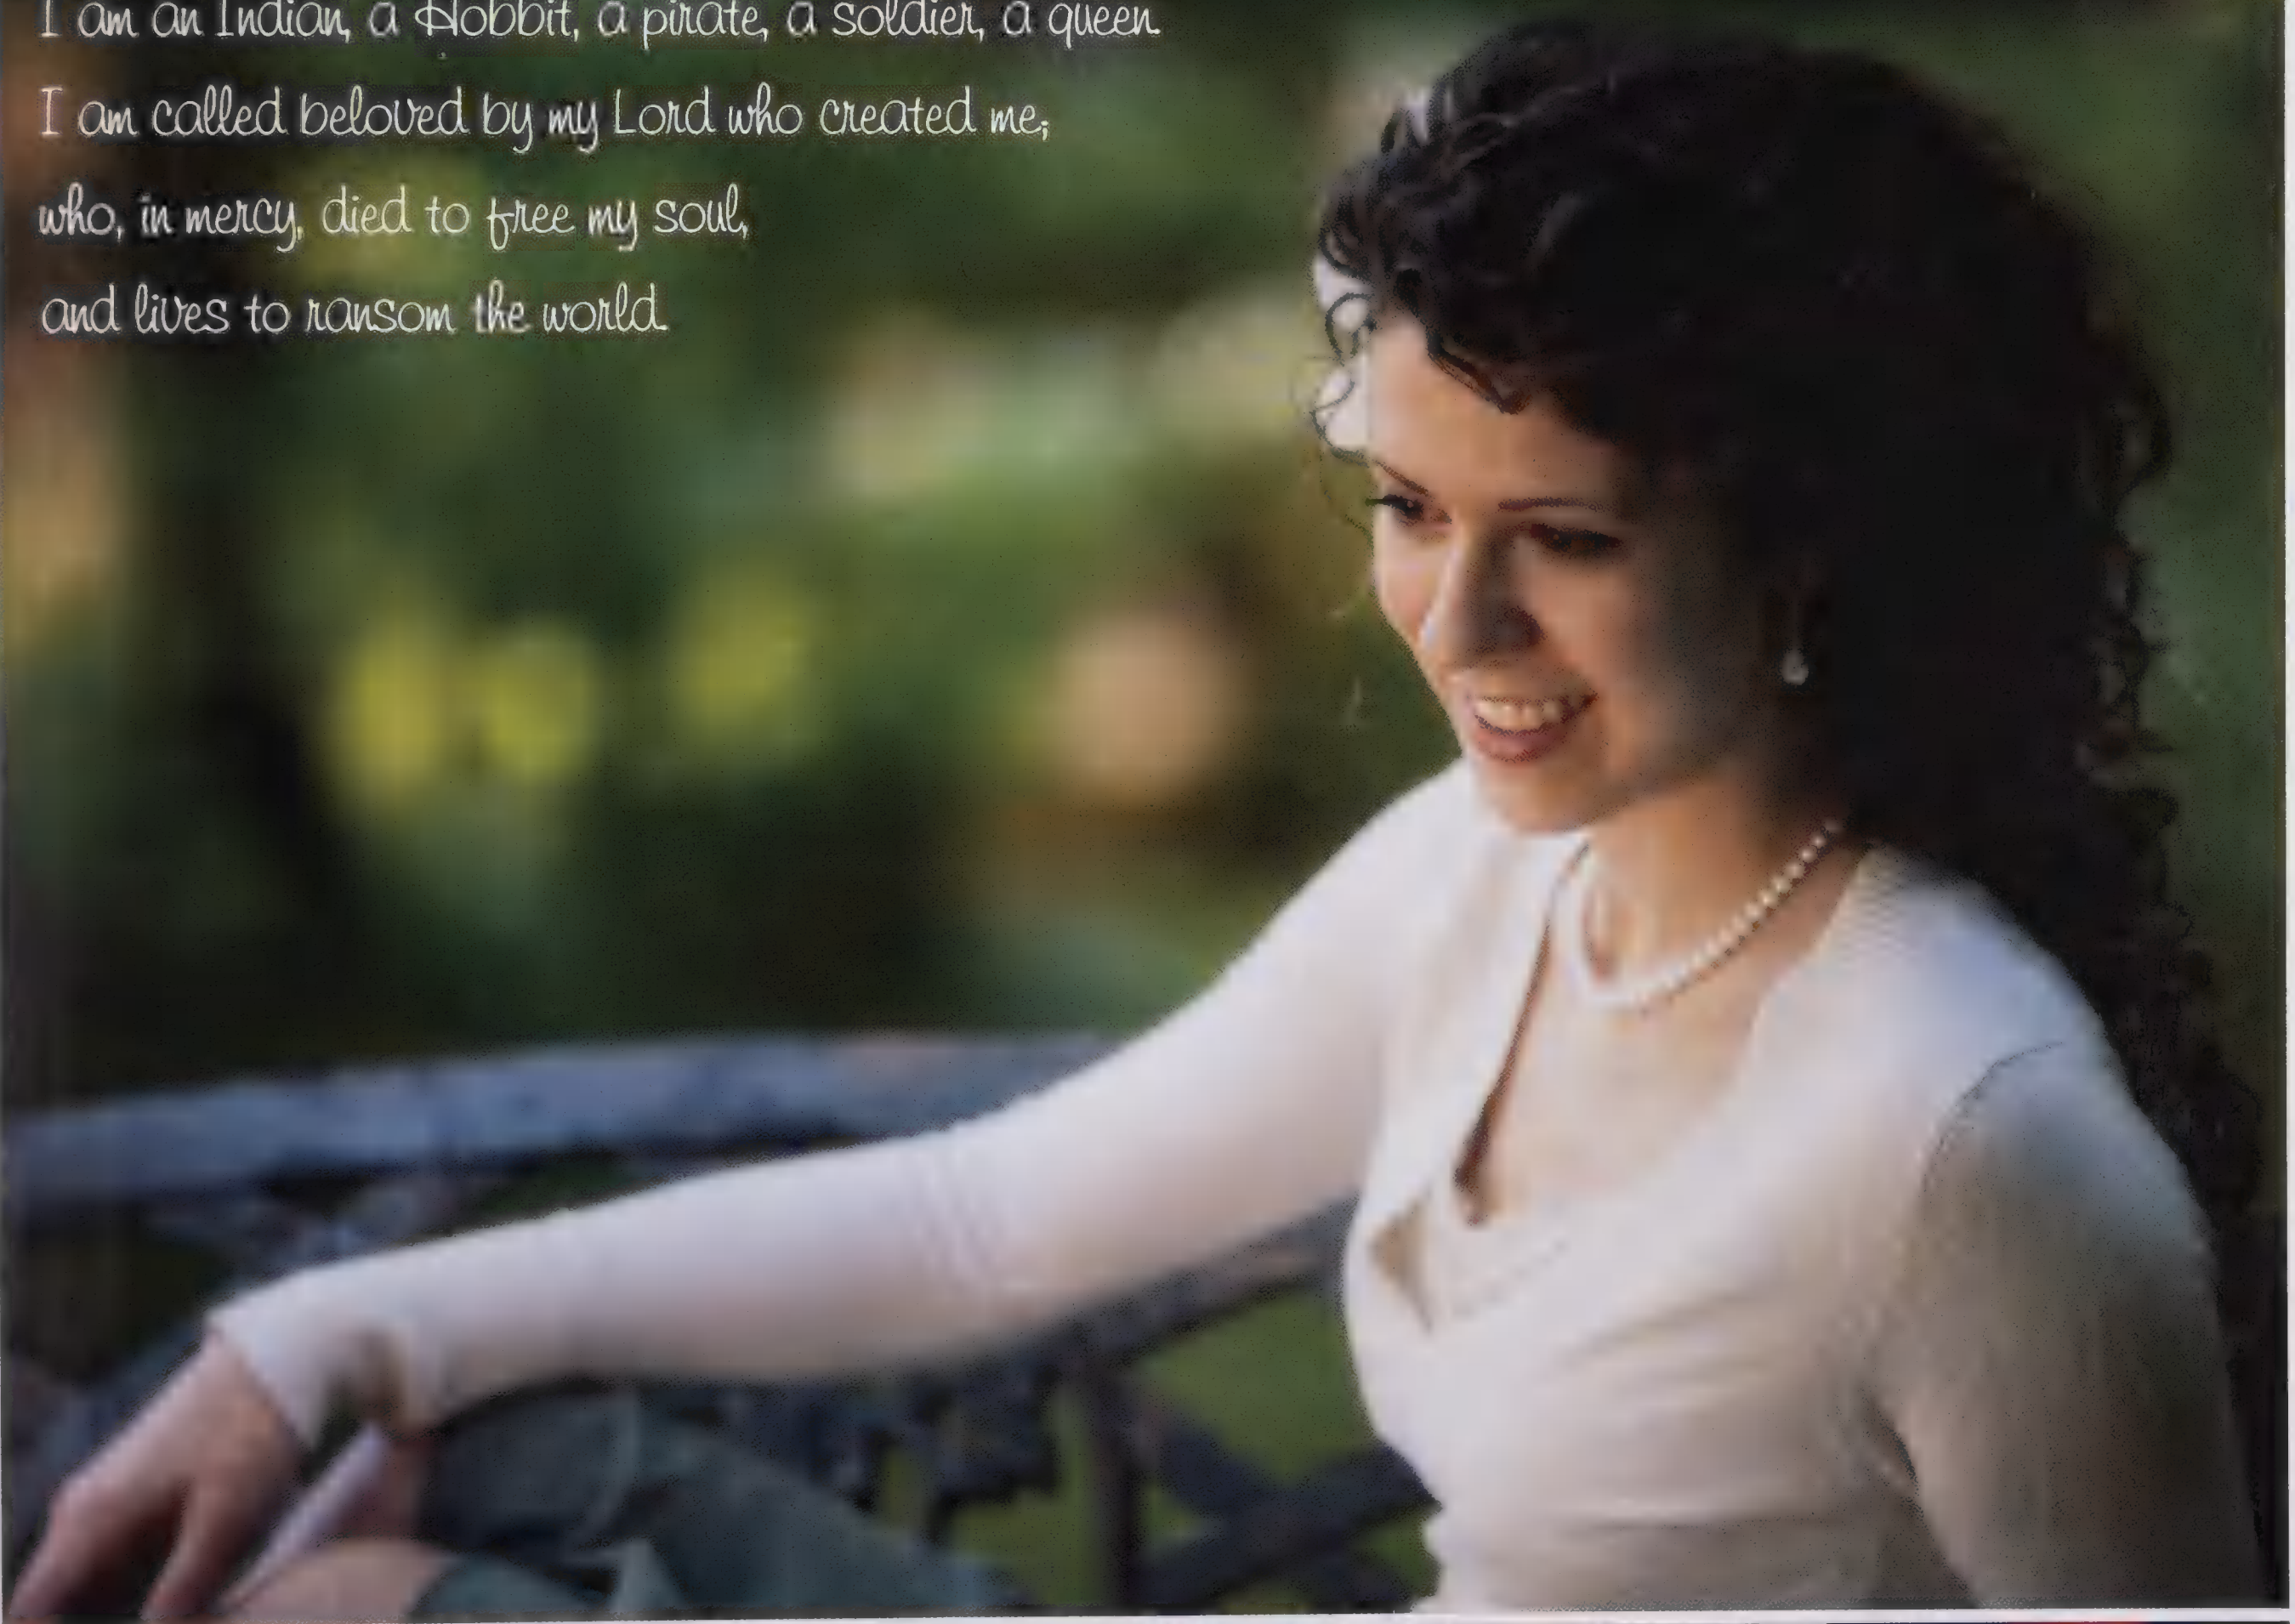

Melinda Welch

I am the firstborn of my parents. Somehow they met and married – the California farm-girl and the Northwest Corvette-man. I am the miracle that doomed hours of home video footage to slobbering, gurgling, staring boringness.

I am the big sister, the de-facto leader of my sibling gang. I am the conspirator who conceived the widely-acclaimed plan to climb down the laundry chute during the Sunday-school teachers' meeting.

I am an Indian, a Hobbit, a pirate, a soldier, a queen.

I am called beloved by my Lord who created me,
who, in mercy, died to free my soul,
and lives to ransom the world.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart
And do not lean on your own understanding.
In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He will make your paths straight.

Graduates about themselves.

Center: Showing her flair on ice skates, Melinda Welch joins Emelie Recknagel and Alexandra Calvo on the ice with other seniors. An activity was planned each month for the soon-to-be graduates.

Right: Surviving the ups and downs of their senior year, Jared Snyder, Andrew Sauter, and Grant Andrews ride the carousel with friends in the Westlake Plaza.

Far Right: While Acacia Danielson invents a story, seniors at the Newhouses' game night warm their hands by the bonfire.

Inset: Before heading to the corn maze, Melissa Poole and Hanna Cirillo stop for coffee at the Spotted Cow.

Below Center: Leaping in the air, seniors Emelie Recknagel, Taylor Swanby, Jordan Brawner, Alex Kreuch, Jeff Powers, and Melinda Welch imitate High School Musical at the Seattle Center.

Below: After scaring friends in the corn maze, Katie Knutson, Emelie Recknagel, Libby Lytle, Andrew Sauter, and Mikel Selin regroup for their next attack.

Senior Activities

Never grow too old to play!

The Fruit of our efforts

Yearbook Staff 2009-2010

Left: Our theme for this year was "Growing" because we wanted to represent the growth of Homeschool Connections and its students. Eleven students created this yearbook and developed skills in design, journalism, and photography.

Mrs. Hutchinson
Yearbook Advisor

Letter from the Advisor:

I was quickly impressed with the commitment and creativity that these young people brought to the table. As the staff selected their theme, it has been my pleasure to watch the growth of not only the yearbook but also each staff member individually. Once again, I am amazed at the end result and hope that it exceeds everyone's expectations. What an honor to document the school year of this wonderful Connections' family.

Mrs. Debbie Hutchinson, Advisor

Letter from the Editor:

Coming into this class, I had no idea what I was getting myself into! Yearbook has been lots of work, but also lots of fun and I am grateful to my creative and talented staff for their efforts, and to Mrs. Hutchinson for her guidance and patience. From crazy work parties to tasty treats to hilarious moments in class, it has been a joy to work on this yearbook.

Melinda Welch, Editor

Whatever he does prospers.
